

City of Norwood
Payneham
& St Peters

Cultural Heritage Historic Plaques and Signs Program | Interpretive Signage Summary

Interpretive signage has been installed at 20 culturally significant sites across the City of Norwood Payneham & St Peters:

1. Rising Sun Hotel, Kensington (European Settlement 1838)
2. Norwood Town Hall, Norwood (Civic Government 1880s)
3. Kent Town Embankment, Kent Town (Transport Horse Tram 1870s)
4. St Peters Town Hall, St Peters (Civic Government 1880s)
5. St Peters College, Hackney (Architecture & Education 1848)
6. The Billabong, St Peters (Natural & Indigenous Heritage)
7. Tree of Knowledge, Payneham (European Settlement 1850s)
8. Former Market Gardens, Marden (Agricultural practices 1920s)
9. Fogolar Furlan Club, Felixstow (European Migration 1940s)
10. Baptist Church, Norwood (Architecture & Cultural Life 1860s)
11. Kent Town Brewery, Kent Town (Industry 1870s)
12. Maylands Tram Barn, Maylands (Transport Horse Tram 1870s)
13. Maid & Magpie, Stepney (European Settlement 1848)
14. Company Mill, Hackney (Industry 1840s)
15. Romilly House, Hackney (Architecture 1870s)
16. Koster's Premier Pottery, Trinity Gardens (Industry 1880s)
17. Mario's Store, Glynde Corner, Glynde (European Migration 1950s)
18. Kensington Village Church, Kensington (Cultural Life 1840s)
19. Tolley's Factory, Stepney (Industry 1858)
20. Norwood Oval, Norwood (Cultural Life 1900s)

